NATIVE PERENNIALS

Blazing Star, Prairie

Liatris pycnostachya

Native. Herbaceous perennial grows 3-5 ft. tall and spreads up to 1 ft. One of the few Liatris species that grows well in moist soils and in clay. Too dry conditions can cause leaf loss, and too little sun may cause twisted growth.
A pollinator magnet with the densely crowded flowers.

PHOTO CREDIT:

BIG SIOUX NURSERY