

NATIVE PERENNIALS

Blazing Star, Dotted

Liatris punctata

Native. Produces attractive purple flower spikes in late summer. Often seen on dry, sandy or gravelly soil. Grows up to 2 feet. This liatris has a deep taproot which help to tolerate hotter climates. Plant in full sun to part shade.

PHOTO CREDIT:
Big Sioux Nursery