

NATIVE PERENNIALS

Joe Pye Weed

Eupatorium maculatum

Native perennial that blooms from late summer to late fall. Fuchsia colored flower buds give way to plumes of lightly scented rose flowers. Grows up to 6 feet tall with a 4 foot spread. Plant in full sun to partial shade with average to wet conditions. Will tolerate some standing water. Attracts butterflies while deer tend to leave this plant alone.

PHOTO CREDIT: Big Sioux Nursery